AFTER BIDS FOR HALL ON WALL TRACT

Harbor Center Folks Proceed to Work As If Agreement Was Not Lacking the Name of Ludewig.

JUNE 1ST IS SET FOR OPENING OF PROPOSALS

Another Day Passes Without the Mayor Putting His Name to Papers—Writ of Mandate Talk Is Heard.

That an effort will be made to obtain a writ of mandamus from Judge Latimer in order to compel Mayor Ludewig to sign his name to the agreement for the city hall removal, was the word which was going the rounds yesterday. If possible the writ will be obtained in time to compel him to act next Monday night.

In the meantime George S. Wall and his company is going ahead with the terms of the agreement. Yesterday a call for bids for the construction of the $15,000 building was issued, the same to be in by Monday night, June 1.

Many conferences were held by both sides yesterday, but no inkling of just what will be done was obtained.

WILL GIVE BALL TO REBUILD EDIFICE

Plans for the rebuilding of St. Mark's church, which was partially destroyed by fire last Friday night, are now under way and the first step in this line will be a dance to be given at East Shore Park next month. The young ladies of the parish have taken the forward step in this matter and their efforts should meet with the commendation of all.

The firemen have called at the Daily News office for the money, which is to be divided among the members who aided in fighting the fire of last Friday. The firemen desire to extend their sincere thanks to the lady who so kindly donated the money. This is the first time in many months that their efforts have been rewarded, and consequently they feel it the more keenly.

Hundreds Watch Big Blast

Ten thousand five hundred tons of earth and rock were blasted into the body of water variously known as the Santa Fe lagoon, Stinger lake and Santa Fe lake, yesterday afternoon at 4:10 o'clock. The blast, consisting of 365 kegs of powder and dynamite, shook the entire Potrero peninsula and the falling rocks whipped the waters into a foaming frenzy and killed many hundred fish. Some of the flying rocks were thrown so far that they crossed the Santa Fe right of way and fell into the bay proper.

It is estimated that over three hundred and fifty people were present when the big blast was set off. It was an imposing spectacle and several cameras were brought into play and many pictures taken of the blast itself and of the foaming water afterwards.

HUNDRED FORM BOOSTERS CLUB

OFFICERS OF BASEBALL BOOSTERS' CLUB.

Otto Dietrich—President.
Harry Gordon—Secretary.
A. C. Lang—Treasurer.

It was an enthusiastic knot of fans that gathered in the office of the Richmond Real Estate Company last night, and what was lacking in numbers was made up in real "pep." Within a few minutes those present had their heads together and had elected the officers named above.

Dietrich, who is an enthusiastic ball fan, was the unanimous choice. He is expected to immediately take active charge of the Boosters' Club and build up a club that will revive baseball interest in this city. Gordon, the secretary, is another rabid fan. In A. C. Lang, chosen as treasurer, the ideal man was selected.

No time will be lost in getting busy. On Friday there will be another meeting, at which the yell leader will be elected. Every fan in the city is not only invited, but expected to be present at Friday night's meeting.

Get in the name. The home guards are a good team and they need support. It is an impossibility to run a baseball club on air.

The following have put their names on the roster of the club:

"Bob" Gruenhagen, Fred Schram, George Schram, Tom Shea, Walter La Selle, Eddie Dearborn, Bud Wright, Charles Walker, W. A. Mackey, J. F. Stiefvater, George Drew, Robert Moran, Denny Burns, C. S. Ammon, Chris Escobar, Harry Swearingner, W. F. Logan, L. Spencer, E. L. Brown, H. W. Tuller, C. B. Brichman, Al Childs, Prof. Harvey D. Eich, Charles Brown, George Calvert, Dan Noziglia, George Carrere, Raymond S. Richmond, J. F. Galvin, Artie Davis, J. J. Davis, Roy Rodgers, Charles Andrews, F. DELEGATES REPORT TO LODGE.

John Hanson and Adolph Gieger, the two delegates from the local lodge of Hermann Sons, who were in attendance at the Grand Lodge of the order, held recently in Bakersfield, made their reports at the session of the order held last night in Bank Hall. The session was well attended.

RAILROAD COMMISSION MAY ACT WITH FAVOR

Similar Condition in Berkeley Cited as Reason for Expecting the Changing of Plans of Espee.

Mayor Ludewig and City Clerk Faris signed their names to the end of a petition last evening requesting the Railroad Commission to compel the Southern Pacific to erect a passenger depot of a size and character in conformity with the city.

It is understood that $4000 is all the money which has been allowed for the building and that it will be a frame one. The building was to be erected 100 feet north of Macdonald avenue and outside of the fire limits.

As Berkeley obtained a concrete building by taking similar action, it is expected that Richmond will fare the same.

PLANNING FLAG EXHIBIT FOR NEXT YEAR

The affiliated organizations of the Grand Army of the Republic in Oakland and the east bay cities have united in forming a permanent committee to arrange for a "living flag" exhibit for the 1915 exposition. The idea originated with Mrs. Sarah H. Wilson, a member of Lyon Woman's Relief Corps, recently chosen women's director.

BRING SUIT FOR BIG DAMAGES FOR DEATH

Great was the surprise of the numerous friends of Charles Halliwell a few months ago, when the word became known that he had lost his life in a fire at Oleum. Halliwell was well known here and no inkling of his demise was given until an Eastern legal firm wrote to find out about his property interests in this city.

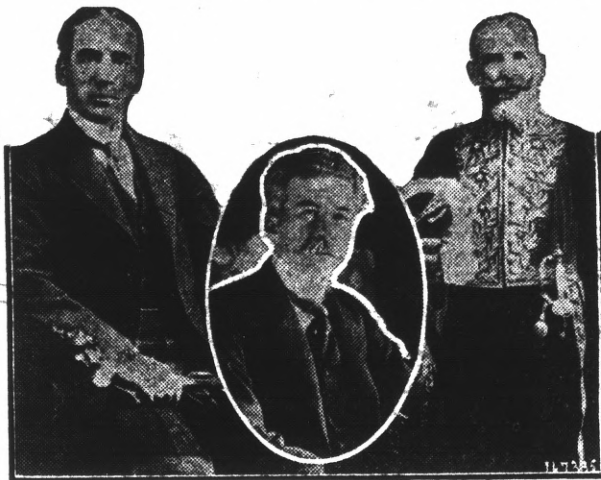

Now the widow, Mrs. Addie Halliwell intends to secure $10,000 from the Union Oil Company for the death of her husband. A complaint reciting the facts and asking for damages was filed in the Superior Court at Martinez.

Halliwell lost his life on December 9, 1913, when the asphalt plant at Oleum was destroyed. The complaint recites that the accident was due to the negligence of the company. Halliwell was burned to death when he rushed into the blaze to rescue some of his friends and became imprisoned by a wall of fire. His ashes pile was taken from the fire after it was over.

TWO MOTORCYCLISTS COLLIDE INJURIES ARE SLIGHT

Injuries of only a minor nature were sustained by Joe Perry and W. Wright Tuesday afternoon, when the motorcycles on which the men were riding collided. The accident happened at the corner of Tenth street and Bissell avenue. Skidding was responsible for the mishap. Both machines were traveling in the same direction and at a low rate of speed, and to these two facts it is probably due that neither man sustained any injuries outside of a few minor bruises and abrasions.

JURY JUSTIFIES KILLING OF LOPEZ

MARTINEZ, May 20.—"We, the jury, find that the deceased was named Juan Lopez, aged about 30 years, a native of Mexico; that death was caused by a fracture of the skull, caused by a blow from a shovel in the hands of Jesus Alonzo and that the same was justifiable homicide."

The above is the text of the verdict which was returned Tuesday afternoon by the coroner's jury which inquired into the cause of death of the Mexican who was killed by Jesus Alonzo at Camp No. 13 on the Webb tract last Thursday night. Following the exonerated by the jury of Alonzo, the charge of murder against him will be dismissed.

The matter has been referred to the federal authorities, Sheriff Veale notifying the immigration officers on Wednesday that in his opinion Alonzo is a fit subject for deportation, having been in this country less than one year and having already become involved in a difficulty.

SENIOR DANCE IS TOMORROW NIGHT

Tomorrow evening is the date by which the hearts, minds and watches of many high school and ex-high school students have been regulated for the past month. The grand affair is the annual senior dance, given by the alumni association as a reception to the graduating class of the local high school. Elaborate plans have been in charge of the various committees and all report their detail finished and in readiness for the grandest ball ever given by the association.

The decoration committee promises surprises in their line, while smiling Newton McCormack, chosen by Association President Edward Temperli, as floor manager, has promised to keep the floor clean or render whatever duties that come within his scope.

The affair is strictly invitational and beyond all doubt everybody receiving one of the five hundred invitations out will be in attendance, as it is the climax of the social events of the school year.

MICHAELS GETS REPAIR PERMIT.

M. Michaels was yesterday given a permit to make repairs on his residence on the west side of Seventh street, between Macdonald and Nevin avenues. The work, which will be started immediately, will cost $2500 and when the home is completed it will be one of the prettiest in the city.

FREEHOLDER PETITION IS CHECKED UP

Twenty-Two More Signatures Are Found to Be on Papers Than Is Required to Call an Election.

DATE PROBABLY WILL BE SET FOR NEXT JULY

Clerk Finishes Task and Will Hand Request of Voters to the Council for Action Next Monday.

City Clerk Faris announced yesterday that he had found that 229 of the 278 signatures attached to the petition asking for an election to choose fifteen freeholders to frame a new charter were bona fide and that he would report at the meeting of the council on Monday night.

According to the law 195 voters must sign the petition to make it legal. It is expected that there will be no hitch in the proceedings and that the call will be issued. The election must be held in not less than thirty days and not more than sixty.

CONGRESSIONAL VISIT NEXT AUGUST

Local committees in charge of the reception that is being contemplated for the visit of the Rivers and Harbors Committee of Congress, which plans to visit the coast, will have more time to work on the various details in program and entertainment. Advice received yesterday was to the effect that the visit will not be made until August.

The word received from Washington is the first definite information that has reached Richmond in regard to the time the trip will be made out this way. It has been found impossible to make the trip while Congress is in session.

The following resolution was adopted at a meeting at which eleven members of the Congress committee were present:

"It is the sense of this committee that they would like to go to California at a date to be fixed by the chairman, when matters in the House, especially the rivers and harbors bill, are more definitely determined.

MAKE PLANS FOR EXCURSION UP RIVER

With a view toward enlightening the citizens of Richmond on every possible angle of the proposed water bonds election, the directors of the Richmond Municipal Water District, in accordance with plans announced some time ago, have gone ahead and made arrangements for a big excursion up the Sacramento river to Toland's Landing, where it is proposed to get Richmond's supply of water. The excursion will be on May 31. The steamship Arrow of the Monticello Steamship Company has been chartered. The start from this city will be made at 8 a. m.

The round trip fare will be $1, which will include a ride to the mole of the Santa Fe, where the boat will dock.

On the way back from Toland's Landing a stop will be made above Sherman Island and a picnic held.

Further details of the excursion, which it is expected hundreds will take advantage of, will be announced later.

ASHLAND AVENUE WORK PROGRESSES.

There is great activity along Ashland avenue now while the paving and sidewalk laying is progressing along that street. Contractor Coleman, who is handling the job, hopes to have it all completed within two weeks' time and the laying of the pipe in the sanitary sewer district within as much time more.

GEORGE MONROE'S CONDITION GRAVE

Latest reports from the bedside of Captain George E. Monroe, master mariner of the Standard Oil Company's barge No. 91 for several years, and who has been confined to his home with a threatened attack of apoplexy for the last three weeks, were to the effect that his condition has grown suddenly worse, and the doctors in attendance hold out little hope for his recovery.

Captain Monroe is one of the best known and liked men on the west side.

HELPING OTHERS, BUT NOT OURSELVES.

There is undoubtedly no other government in the world which takes as much trouble to help foreigners and so little to help its own people as the government of the United States, and that tendency which some people we presume think admirable, was never as much in evidence as it is under the present administration. To illustrate: Congress has enacted that steamships owned by railroads shall not go through the Panama canal, but that, of course, applies only to American ships, and thus we have the spectacle of the Japanese who run a line of ships between Japan and San Francisco extending their lines to New York, while the only American line on the Pacific can not put on a line of ships to the Atlantic because some of its stock is owned by the railroads.

But our intense desire to injure our own business for the profit of others does not stop there. The Japanese pay their line $50,000 a trip for seventeen trips a year between Yokohama and New York by way of the canal, while we strictly forbid any help to American ships, and even do all we can to make it difficult for us to keep on the ocean the few ships we have there now.

We are placing ourselves, therefore, in the ridiculous position of having spent $450,000,000 for the benefit of other nations. Every other nation in the world subsidizes its ships except the United States. We do nothing of the kind, and as a result our shipyards are idle, our sailors are few and we maintain a big navy and control the greatest canal in the world and have no commerce to protect or ships to sail through the great waterway.

Nay, we do not stop even there. We must needs hunt around for some sentimental reason for injuring ourselves in the matter of the right to use the canal, and against the platform that we adopted by both parties, and against all reason and international ideas of right, we are busy even now tying our hands to satisfy European opinion, which very properly laughs at us for our pains. Never in the history did a great nation take a more absurd position, and is there any record of any people going further out of their way to injure themselves? It is to be hoped before we have gone too far that we will see the folly of the sentimental road we are traveling and retrace our steps to safe and sane ground.

THE ENGLISH AND THE AMERICAN WAY.

It is announced that Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo, having married a daughter of the President, must resign from the Cabinet and is to be made ambassador to France. It may seem that of the two positions the ambassadorship is the preferable, especially as the ambassador's wife is the President's daughter, and such relationships count for a good deal socially in Europe. But leaving out of consideration that side of the question, it can not but strike the observer who knows anything of Cabinets abroad, especially in England, how differently we do things on this side of the Atlantic. Here we never appoint a member of the army or navy to the Cabinet, and a civilian is always head under the President of both those arms of the service. Again we never allow two members of the same family to hold offices in the Cabinet, and we do not even view with approval any relative of the President, even by marriage, holding a position of great importance under the administration.

In Europe, on the contrary, all the best positions are filled by the royal family as a matter of course, and the Cabinet not infrequently includes father and son, or brothers or relatives more or less closely connected with the Premier. Lord Salisbury had two of his sons in the Cabinet with him, and that is only one instance of many that might be named.

If a President were to appoint his son to a place of such importance, or his brother, or some other close relative, it would be considered little less than a scandal. We call attention to that fact because much that passes in Europe for all right, in America is all wrong, and this country is charged with having scandals and with being corrupt by the very Europeans who are doing at home what they blame in the United States. The truth is that there is no country in the world where there is as little grafting, as little nepotism, and as few genuine scandals as there are in this Republic, and that fact can not be too often emphasized, because curiously enough there are many Americans who seem to take a positive delight in smothering the name and record of their own country.

A CONTRAST.

One day recently the women of the United States, or at least as many of them as could and wanted to, joined in a parade in Washington and marched to the Capitol to present a petition to Congress for universal suffrage. They had a very large and interesting turnout, and although even if the Congress were to pass the constitutional amendment there is little likelihood that sufficient states would adopt it to give it force, yet they were respectfully listened to and courteously received. No houses were burned down, no windows smashed, no person injured or murdered.

Across the ocean in England the women there also want suffrage, and they are busy committing crimes that if they were not women would land them in prison for life. They are burning, destroying, smashing, and of course not getting any nearer their goal than if they went about their object peacefully, and in fact not as soon. In this country women already have the suffrage in many states and their number is continually increasing, and long before a national constitutional amendment could become law, if it did, which as we have said we greatly doubt, the vast majority of the women of this nation will have the ballot, and in the other states where they do not have it it will be because they themselves do not want it, because if the women as a majority want the right to vote, any state in the country will speedily give them that right.

It is very gratifying to Americans to see the great contrast between the women of England and the women of America. It is a contrast that is all in favor of the United States, not only the women of the United States, but of the men as well, because the women of this country evidently understand that they can persuade and lead the worse half of creation much more easily than they can coerce it.

Maury Diggs has escaped from his last entanglement. The jury appears to have based its verdict upon the theory that it was a case of birds of a feather and there was no reason why one bird should be made to suffer more than the other. The Diggs case recalls the plea once made by the late "Lucky" Baldwin when sued for a breach of promise of some similar affair, which was that his reputation was so bad that any women who went with him had no reason to complaint of the loss of good name by the association.

Sacramento is going to furnish its girl graduates with graduation gowns. The idea is that they shall be dressed alike, and that the dresses shall be modest and simple. Gowns with motorboard hats are to be used. Next year the same graduation garments can again be employed. The idea is not a bad one, but why confine it to the girls? Why not give the boys a graduation suit also.

The details of the naval scandal show that the vice admiral received $200,000 in bribes, and that a number of lesser sums were paid also as bribes to various officials. It is as extensive a story of bribery as any country can show, not excepting France, where such things as scandals in financial matters are of almost daily occurrence.

Samuel O'Dell has furnished the argument to go on the ballot in favor of prohibition. He says that liquor should be banished because it causes insanity, drunkenness, crime, sickness and death. He urges that grape raisers use their product for table grapes and that all breweries be converted into flour mills.

The Morlas court in Chicago has arranged to send out of the country every alien who is found guilty of a crime. The latest person to be exported is a Greek who contributed to the delinquency of an American girl. The only criticism of that system is that the punishment is hardly sufficient for the offense.

The Mexicans robbed O'Shaughnessy's trunks as he was leaving Mexico. Possibly it was not with the connivance of Huerta, but nevertheless it is a reflection upon the latter's administration that a diplomat leaving a country with an official guard could not be protected from thieves.

To profess to admire union principles, but to do nothing to support them if the doing requires a little sacrifice on your part, is not the way to show your loyalty to your principles.

JUDGE ROTH WRITES ON HOME RULE IN TAXATION

By JOHN ROTH.

It is the purpose of this article to show as briefly as I can the enormity of the injustice resulting from a provision of our State Constitution which seems so fair on its face, namely: "That all property in this state shall be assessed at its cash value." To express myself more clearly I will classify Society into three groups and deal with each as though it were one person.

Group No. 1 is the big fellow, who owns the controlling interest in all of the lands, mines, factories, business blocks, banks, etc. He lives in ease and luxury from the interest of his money, his rents, and from the sale of his lands. He owns all of the unused lands, which increases in value according to the necessities of his industrious neighbors. He simply sits up in his dignity and watches it grow. I will give him a nickname and call him Wealth, to distinguish him more clearly from Capital.

No. 2 comes next in importance in the business world. He is a different kind of fellow altogether. He is full of life and ambitious to do things, he promotes and speculates, builds railroads, starts ship lines, builds and runs factories—in fact he is the real live, wideawake business man. He borrows from No. 1 the money to do business with. So we see that capital is only that portion withdrawn from Wealth to reproduce itself. No. 2 cannot do as he pleases with capital, because it is controlled by No. 1 absolutely. The taxes which the state, county or city levies against the property of No. 1 are simply shifted down the line onto No. 2 in the shape of increased interest and rentals. It is plain that No. 1 has escaped those taxes entirely by putting them over onto No. 2. Do they stay put on No. 2? Most certainly not. How can anyone be so innocent as to even imagine that it would stay put on No. 2 when he has the same chance to pass it to No. 3 as No. 2 had to pass it to him? He simply passes it down the line to No. 3 in increased prices of the goods, wares and merchandise he sells him, and that he must have for the use of his family.

No. 3 is easily defined as being in a class by itself. It is that great body of men and women in the world who have nothing but their labor to sell and are powerless to fix its price. No. 1 fixes the price of capital, No. 2 fixes the price of commodities and No. 3 must pay it all or let his family go naked and starve. In other words, they are fleeced from his pay check. No. 1 dominates No. 2 as relentlessly as No. 2 dominates No. 3 by fixing the prices of the products upon which both must live. He may live and often does in a foreign land, but his edict controls No. 2 and through him No. 3 as completely as though he sat here a crowned monarch.

There are not idle theories, but actual conditions that all men know to be true. The question is how can we break the power of No. 1 without destroying our free government? We do not intend to take by physical force from No. 1 that which he acquired by virtue of a law which we ourselves made. We don't believe in the Mexican idea. Let us rather adopt the peaceable and sensible plan now in operation in Australia, New Zealand and Canada. No. 1 has no power there to shift the taxes levied on his personal property and improvements down the line onto No. 3, for the simple reason that personal property and improvements are exempt from taxation. The taxes are levied there on land alone and cannot be shifted down the line.

Before we can adopt that system, however, we must adopt the constitutional amendments now pending to permit us to have "home rule in taxation." Think of it. We call ourselves a free people and are denied that right while England grants it to her colonies freely. Canada is so far north and the winters are so long that little can be grown for the market except wheat, yet from three to five hundred thousand American farmers and laborers are flocking in there every year. The farmer, laborer and mechanic are happy and contented because both industry and the products of industry are free. Cities are growing up there like magic for the same reason. Man's industry cannot be taxed there. The taxes are placed on land alone, thus making the burden on unimproved land so heavy that no man can afford to hold it out of use. He must put it to its best use also. He cannot afford to grow a measly crop of hay on a block in the heart of a city and hold it at $10,000 per acre. If he holds it for that sum he must pay taxes on that sum. In the Modesto irrigation district improvements were exempt by the Legislature, from irrigation taxes, two years ago, and it worked a miracle. The wheat fields were immediately turned into small, thrifty homes. Substantial buildings replaced the makeshift shacks over the whole district and a life and vigor exists there which could not have existed if improvements had remained taxed. I have written to the mayors of ten cities in Canada where the single land tax is in operation. I have received replies from six of them. Every one of them say that it is an unqualified success. The district of Burnaby is a rural municipality. The postoffice is Edmunds, B. C. It contains 34 square miles and is solely a farming community. In 1906 it contained 500 inhabitants. It now contains 15,000. See how improvements grow where industry is not taxed. This is a fair sample of the six answers I have so far received.

If the municipality of Burnaby in a farming country, with six months winter, can increase its population 3000 per cent in eight years by giving labor freedom, how much could the city of Richmond increase its population in the next eight years should she free its labor as did the people of Burnaby. We have a climate where men can work the year around, and a soil that will produce everything to supply human wants.

The Panama canal will place us in the open door of the world's markets at the cheapest rates. Richmond is the natural home for factory sites. Put a tax on those unused sites so high that their owners cannot afford to hold them and free labor from its present unjust taxation and Richmond will increase in the next eight years at a greater ratio than did the municipality of Burnaby in the last eight years, which would give her a population of near a half million in that time.

It is not an injustice to the owner of unused lands to force it into use at its just value. Land is worth what it will pay interest on and no more. No. 1 has no right to own the earth and forbid anyone to occupy it except on his own terms. Taxing idle farm and garden lands into use at a fair price will give land to the landless and will give No. 3 a chance to build himself a home that will support him in his declining years. How can anyone wonder at the growlings and snarlings of No. 3 under the unjust burdens placed upon him by No. 1. Let us all vote for home rule in taxation and then see how quickly he will raise in triumph from the house of bondage by retaining to himself the fruits of his honest toil.

The public owes this freedom to No. 3. They are the most patriotic of all classes. They have always been the first to the defense of our flag and offer up their lives if need be upon the altar of freedom. "He is always the man behind the gun to defend our nation's honor."

People of Richmond: Vote for this just amendment to our constitution, which will remove those taxes from the backs of those who are least able to bear it, and place it where it put the unused lands, to its best use, and then just watch us grow into a happy, great and prosperous city.

The Absolute Honesty in All Our Advertising

So long as the ideals of the press make it possible for a dishonest merchant to take a lying advertisement to an indifferent newspaper, the advertisements of honest merchants consort with thieves. A prominent Chicago newspaper says: "The dishonest advertiser is a thief. He filches from the pockets of those who believe his lying lures. His dishonesty is doubly despicable because his victims generally are those who can least afford to be swindled." The motto of the business pirate is: "If the world will be gulled let it be gulled," and to gull the public. "He will lie, sir, with such volubility that you think truth were a fool."

"Success was never indebted to a lie," and the dishonest advertiser never is a successful merchant. Fraud and chicanery are his moral stock in trade and his friends are cut from the same width of cloth. His business is founded on the quicksands of deceit. Mr. Customer, how much do you by your trade encourage this class of advertising?

WILSON WIRES TO COUNCIL VIEWS ON WATER

In answer to a telegram from the Central Labor Council of Alameda county, asking him for his views on the proposed metropolitan water district, J. Stitt Wilson, ex-mayor of the city of Berkeley, wired R. E. Keyser, president of the council, as follows:

"Any purported interview with me concerning the water deal unauthorized. For my last expressed opinion see my last annual message to the Berkeley City Council under head of 'Water District.' Am unfamiliar with later developments.

"I desire public ownership of the water supply and distributing system, but only on conditions where rights of the people are wholly conserved and any wiles of corporate power defeated."

UNIONS WILL NOT ASSIST SEVEN STRIKERS

Seven enamellers and their helpers, employed at the works of the Pacific Sanitary Company at Fifth and Hensley street, walked out yesterday, when they were informed that their wages had suffered a cut from $7.50 to $4. The outlook is that they will lose their jobs by their action, as they are not organized.

About six months ago the moulders went on a strike for more pay and endeavored to get the enamellers to follow suit, but were politely informed that this was impossible. Last evening members of the union stated emphatically that they were not in sympathy with the strikers and that they intended to treat them in the same manner as they were treated.

The enamellers are said to be chosen from various walks of life and not because they are proficient men. As the walk-out means only seven men and will not become general in the plant, the management is making arrangements to fill the vacant places.

SAYS CITY IS FREE FROM CONTAGIOUS DISEASE

According to a statement made yesterday by Health Officer C. R. Blake, Richmond is now entirely free from diseases of a contagious nature. All houses that have been quarantined recently have been freed from quarantine. The cases that have been most prevalent locally of late are scarlet fever and the measles.

WAGE OF WOMEN DISCUSSED BY MATRON

Mrs. A. M. Nicholson, one of Oregon's most prominent defenders of labor and a defender of humanity in general, criticises the methods of the board recently appointed by the governor of Oregon to investigate the minimum wage to be paid to women and girls.

"There is one great weakness in the board as at present constituted, with a clergyman, a businessman and a school teacher, composing it. It does not in any sense represent labor. I believe without labor represented by a woman who has passed through the experiences of the working girl, any wage board is something of a joke.

"To decide the minimum in Oregon, for instance, a large committee of business men fixed the wage—which is about $8.60. These men, all employers of women, went minutely into the girls' necessities—from the employers' standpoint. They did not debate the question from the standpoint of how much the stockholders could spare from their profits, but from the opposite standpoint—how little the girl could exist on respectably."

Mrs. Nicholson's high moral sense of equity and justice are expressed in the following words:

"Their findings were a disgrace to the Oregon business men. I remember a few of the details. They decided to reckon the wage, for instance, that two suits of underwear and three pairs of stockings was sufficient for the working girl's wardrobe. I asked one merchant if the men he knew spent money on that scale for another class of women that society is also responsible for, and whether the working girl should be asked to actually support her sad sister. He refused to answer."

Speaking of the unemployed problem, Mrs. Nicholson stated that the worst thing they had to contend with there was the grafting of the employment agencies.

That the problem would only be solved when such abuses as the grafting employment agencies were wiped out.

IS IT IN VAIN?

"If all the blood and wretchedness and protest did not create new will power in the working class, then Lawrence and Calumet and Ludlow and all the other battlefields of labor have been in vain."—Giovannitti.

NEW JUDGE FOR NEXT MOONEY TRAIL

Judge J. D. Arnot of Placerville, El Dorado county, has been named by Governor Hiram Johnson to preside at the third trial of Thomas J. Mooney, who is charged with having high explosives in his possession. Judge J. E. Barber of Shasta county, who presided at the two previous trials, will be unable to be in the county for the Mooney trial and Judge Arnot was selected.

Mooney, who is charged in Sacramento with transporting dynamite on a street car, was to have been given his preliminary hearing in the capital city Tuesday. At the first Mooney trial the jury stood 6 to 6 and in the second instance 7 to 5 for acquittal.

MOONEY PLEDGED AID OF UNION DELEGATES

E. S. Hurley, electrical worker of Oakland and a member of the defense league, appeared before the Central Labor Council last night and gave a lengthy and interesting review of the recent trials of Thomas J. Mooney, in Martinez, portraying the activities of the Pacific Gas and Electric company in the trials. Three hundred tickets to an Oakland theater were left to be sold between now and June 11.

The delegates voiced their condemnation of the persecution of Mooney as unjust and an outrage to humanity. They also donated $10 to the striking pressmen of San Francisco, after listening to an explanation from two of their members. The attendance was very good.

TODAY IS HOLY DAY: TO HOLD SERVICES

Today is Holy Day, better known as Ascension Day. Special services for the occasion have been planned by the members of Our Lady of Mercy Catholic church on the west side. In honor of the fortieth day following Easter, a special service is to be held at 9 o'clock.

of the asphalt streets in front of their property. The work was done by the California Road and Street Improvement Company.

GUESTS ENJOY AN EVENING OF WHIST

Twenty tables were filled last night at the whist party given by the Native Daughters of the Golden West of Richmond. The playing started late in the evening, and the festivities were not concluded until the midnight hour. The prizes were all useful as well as ornamental articles. Mrs. Elder won the grand prize, Mrs. Greathouse ladies' first, Mrs. Joseph Eaton second and Mrs. McLean consolation.

Thomas Beard was the winner of the first gent's prize, Denny Burns captured the second and Jack Holliday the consolation.

At the conclusion of the whist playing a sumptuous banquet was served. The committee in charge of last night's affair was composed of Mrs. Thomas Shea, Mrs. Gus Mueller, Mrs. A. J. Summers, Mrs. A. C. Lang and Mrs. A. Livingstone.

PLAN DANCE TO GET BUILDING FUNDS

Plans for raising funds for the rebuilding of that part of St. Mark's Catholic church of this city, gutted by fire on last Friday night, have already been made by the young women of the church. An announcement was made yesterday that the pavilion at East Shore Park has been secured for the night of June 26, and a big dance will be given. Committees will be appointed for the ball later, and work will be immediately started to make the affair a financial as well as a social success. The funds will go toward the rebuilding of the church.

BAPTIST WOMEN GIVE DINNER TONIGHT

Tonight between the hours of 5 and 8 o'clock the Ladies' Aid Society of the First Baptist church of this city will serve a dinner in the church parlors on Washington avenue. The committee women in charge of the feast have been working hard all week, and it is expected a big crowd will be on hand to partake of their hospitality. The menu, which has been announced, is sure to tickle the palates of all. The committee is composed of Mrs. A. J. Pearson, Mrs. P. Dunlap and Mrs. R. Minner.

PLUMBERS APPEAR BEFORE BOARD OF CITY

Last evening a committee consisting of Messrs. Evans, Stigman and Craig appeared at the private session of the city council and took up with that body the various phases of the plumbing ordinance. The three were delegated the task by the Plumbers' Union.

In the main the proposed ordinance is all right, but there are a number of minor changes which are deemed necessary. One of these is the putting up of a cash bond of $100 instead of any other form.

JENNINGS LANDS MAN WANTED IN FRESNO

Officer Jennings made an important arrest when a man much wanted in various coast cities was apprehended here and taken in custody of the law. The much-wanted individual is Richard Montague, who will answer a charge of defrauding an innkeeper in Fresno. He will be taken south today.

PARISHIONERS TO MEET MONDAY EVENING

Next Monday night Archbishop Hanna will be present at a meeting of the parishioners of St. Mark's parish, to be held in the Lincoln grammar school auditorium. At this time the high dignitary will explain the needs and the various phases of the restoration of the church, which was greatly damaged by a fire last Friday night. A large attendance is desired at the meeting, and all those interested in the welfare of the church are invited to be present. At the meeting, which will start at 7:45 o'clock, parish matters will be thoroughly discussed.

There will be mass as usual next Sunday at 8:30 and 10:30 in the auditorium of the Lincoln grammar school. Evening devotions will be held in that same place at 7:30 Sunday night.

EAGLES GETTING READY FOR VISIT

President Roy Patterson and the committeemen working under his direction, are fast completing arrangements for the entertainment to be provided on the night of May 28, when a big delegation of Oakland Eagles, headed by Sheriff Barnett of Alameda county and the Eagles' band of thirty-five pieces, will be the guests of the local lodge in A. O. U. W. Hall. During the evening there is to be an initiation. One of the biggest nights in the history of Point Richmond Aerie of Eagles is being planned for.

PYTHIAN SISTERS CHOOSE GRAND OFFICERS

SACRAMENTO, May 20.—Mrs. Mabel Midgely of Pomona, grand senior of the Grand Temple of Pythian Sisters, was elected unanimously grand chief at the convention today. Mrs. Nora O. Donald of Eureka, formerly grand junior, was advanced to grand senior, and Miss Etta Benz of San Diego, grand manager, to the office of grand junior.

The Knights of Pythias were busy with routine matters today. The Australian ballot system of holding elections was discussed.

MANNERCHOIR PICNIC ON SUNDAY

Arrangements for the picnic of the Richmond Mannerchoir to be held up San Pablo creek next Sunday have been completed. Because street cars do not run to the place where the picnic will be held, the committee in charge has made arrangements to secure several large busses. The first bus will leave the corner of Seventh and Macdonald at 7 o'clock, and will return, leaving the second time at 10 o'clock. During the day there will be games and dancing.

REGISTRATIONS STILL POUR IN.

It is believed that there will be in the neighborhood of 14,000 registrations in Contra Costa county this fall before the time for the closing of registration elapses. The Republicans are far in the lead in the registrations.

BOY BREAKS COLLARBONE.

VALLEJO DOES NOT WANT ENTRANCE INTO TROLLEY LEAGUE AT THIS TIME

No credence is placed in the report that has been going the rounds for the past week that the Vallejo management is trying to break its club into the Trolley League. Word received from Vallejo, although unofficial, is to the effect that the management of the team of the Navy Yard city is not even considering the proposition. There is no doubt many fans in Vallejo who would like to see Vallejo in the Trolley League, but it is nearly an impossibility.

Vallejo, in the first place, is located too far away from the body of the circuit of the Trolley League. Woodland, which is the nearest town on which games in the league are played, is quite a ride. No games are played on the Sacramento lot, as the North Sacramento nine is a traveling aggregation and never plays at home.

Marysville is nearest to Vallejo outside of Woodland, and Marysville is close to a hundred miles distant. Chico and Oroville and Colusa are all over a hundred miles away from Vallejo.

The reason that the Trolley League has been such a success is that the jumps that must be made from Sunday to Sunday are comparatively short. Fans by the hundreds follow the various teams, and in this way the gates at the majority of the games are kept up around the $400 mark.

Vallejo could not draw $400 through the box office at this writing. The Trolley League magnates would not consider the entrance of Vallejo into their league, as they are strong for a six-league club. If any more changes are made in the league, it is the consensus of opinion that it will be cut to four teams, instead of making an enlargement.

Every one of the Trolley League franchises is worth money, real money, and those who have control of the franchises will not part with them under thousands. Bacon of the North Sacramento traveling team turned down an offer of $3000 made to him to sell the club.

Looking at the matter from every angle, the writer, who is well acquainted with the ins and outs of the valley organization, thinks that Vallejo has absolutely no chance to break into the fast bush organization, even should the Vallejo fans and management desire to do so.

Vallejo is without doubt one of the best ball towns in this neck of the woods, and it would be a real misfortune if it should withdraw from the Bay Counties League. The Bay Counties League has started off all right, and interest is bound to grow. A good class of ball is being put up, good enough to satisfy even the Vallejo fans, who are baseball epicures.

BASEBALL YARNS SCRIBBLED BY "FANATIC"

Charlie Burns will probably be back on the firing line for the Richmond Elks against the Standard Gas Engines Sunday. Burns is in great shape, and it would not surprise any of the local fans if he hurled shutout ball.

Four pitchers, who got their start in the Sacramento valley, or who hurried in the Trolley League last year, are going great with teams in organized ball. Big Bill James, the Oroville youth, now with the Boston Braves, is winning his games right along, and Monday he held Pittsburgh down to six scattered bingles. McCannier, who won the pennant in the Trolley for Oroville last season, is one of the Pacific Coast League's leading pitchers. "Dec" is with Venice. Martinoni, formerly with Marysville, has won five straight games for the Portland Coast League club. Bromley of Chico is hurling a great brand of ball for Nick Williams' Portland Northwest club.

Suisun figured on walking away with Sunday's game with Kahn Bros., but that club put over a surprise package and simply snowed the Sperry Flour boys under. Vallejo has usurped Suisun's position in second place in the Bay Counties League.

Are you going to join the Boosters' club? You might as well get in and boost the game.

With Wilcox in temporary retirement on account of a sore arm, Martinez fans are a trifle afraid that their club will get a trimming when it goes up against some fast nine. Local fans are of the belief that the chief strength of the county seat fans is right on the mound. At that Richmond is mighty confident of beating Martinez should the two clubs hook up. But the up-county manager keeps stalling and sidestepping and it looks as though there will be no game between the rival clubs this year.

Pitcher Colwell, one of Harry Wolverton's recruits, who was farmed out to the Marysville club of the Trolley League by the head of the Wolf pack, has been recalled and will shortly be called upon to twirl in the P. C. L. Colwell has been going good with Marysville, and Wolverton needs pitchers badly. George Sparks, an Alameda boy, and former State Leaguer in the days of Cy Moreing, will be Marysville's first string hurler hereafter.

Thieves broke into the storehouse in the basement of the Richmond high school Monday night and stole supplies amounting to approximately $35. The loss was discovered Tuesday morning by the janitor of the school. The matter was reported to the police by Principal B. X. Tucker.

STANDARD NINE TO BE STRONG SUNDAY

Word received by the local baseball management yesterday was to the effect that there will be several changes in the lineup of the Standard Gas Engines, the team that plays the Richmond Elks on the local lot Sunday afternoon. At the present writing the Standards are in the cellar, along with Benicia, having played four games and lost all of them.

The management of the traveling team is determined that the losing streak must stop and is taking steps to make some radical changes in the roster of the club, in order that it may be strong enough to get up with the leaders in the race in the Bay Counties League.

In the meantime local fans are warming up to the season, and it is expected that a good crowd will be on hand when the teams clash next Sunday afternoon.

COAST LEAGUE RESULTS

Venice and San Francisco, league leaders, both won yesterday, and their positions remain unchanged. The San Francisco-Los Angeles game was one of the best of the season, the score resulting 1 to 0.

Oakland went just a little further down in the cellar by getting a beating from Portland. Killilay was hit freely by the Ducks.

"Stivers" Henley, former idol of the San Francisco fans, got back in the game for Venice yesterday after a long lay off. Henley pitched indifferent ball, but just good enough to beat the sliding Sacs.

The scores:
At Los Angeles— R. H. E.
San Francisco 1 5 0
Los Angeles 0 3 1
San Francisco, Leifeld and Clarke;
Los Angeles, Ryan and Brooks.

At San Francisco— R. H. E.
Portland 7 11 3
Oakland 2 6 1
Portland, West and Fisher; Oakland, Killilay and Mitze.

At Sacramento— R. H. E.
Venice 10 16 1
Sacramento 6 9 0
Venice, Henley and Elliott; Sacramento, Slagle and Hannah.

BOWLING TEAMS ARE MATCHED AGAIN

Oakland's bowling team, the Heralds, wants another crack at the fast Richmond bowling team, which drubbed the Alameda county tenpin smashers in such a decisive way last week. Accordingly all arrangements for another match have been made, and the alley artists will clash again Saturday. This time the games will be bowled on the Oakland alleys. The Richmond team is composed of Kimball, Gamble, Williams, Larripa, Schram and Keville. Each member of the team is getting plenty of practice and all the boys are confident they will be strong enough to lead the Heralds to another slaughter.

You Can Make Big Money on Richmond Business Property

You've had dozens of chances to buy farm lands—suburban residential lots—and even possible industrial sites—in Richmond—but the

is the only opportunity you've had to buy property that actually must be used for business blocks—and will command absolutely the highest price in the next few years.

Yet—

Right now you can buy lots in this tract just as low and on just as easy terms as any other property.

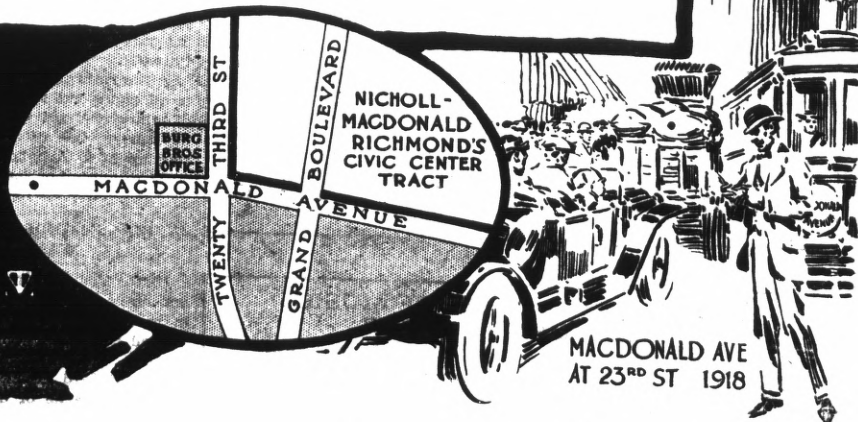

If you fully realize this situation you'd investigate right away. So why don't you? It won't cost you a cent—even if you live outside of the bay cities.

FINE VAUDEVILLE AT RICHMOND THEATRE

The Richmond Theater offers a good bill of vaudeville and photo-plays to its patrons today.

One of the acts, that of a Chinese violinist, will be found very unique, as this extraordinary Oriental musician offers entrancing ragtime selections.

Overton, the entertaining caricaturist, presents comical drawings that will be well liked and appreciated.

The Burbank Sisters are seen in classical and ragtime songs and dances with pretty dresses and their pleasing personality those maidens will win applause.

"Never Again" is a two-part special feature comedy presented by the Vitaphone Company. This is what they all say when they go out for a "time" and get found out. Sidney Drew has the time of his life at the French ball. He just escapes being found out by his family, but nevertheless he has to pay for it. The direction in this picture deserves mention and the support in the cast is thoroughly adequate. Mr. Drew is in a class by himself, and the picture begins with a titter and ends with a roar.

Three other pictures that deserve mention are presented on the program. "The Puritan," a Lubin drama; "When a Woman Guides," a Biograph drama, and "The Resurrection of Caleb Worth," an Edison drama.

Tomorrow only Malcolm Williams, supported by a notable cast, will be seen in "The Brute." The world-famous drama of a strong man's triumph over a woman's pride. A tense drama of the clash of wills, the climax of which hangs in the balance, until the man, in righteous indignation, exerts his strength toward the subjugation of the woman. How he eventually conquers and forgives her is vividly portrayed, and the picture is one which should be seen by all.

OAKLAND FIRM IS GIVEN HOSPITAL ADDITION JOB

The contracting firm of Boyd, Kerr and McLean of Oakland and San Francisco was awarded the contract for the new addition to the Contra Costa county hospital Monday morning, the firm's bid of $28,752 plus $409 for the maple floors on the first and second floors being the lowest of the ten bids submitted. The contract will be entered into at once and construction work will begin immediately.

In addition to the general bid covering all work the Supervisors called for estimates on facing the front of the building with red pressed brick, for substituting maple for the pine floors and for the extra concrete. The bids received were Scheneply, Hostrower and Peddrift, $31,329, plus brick, $2200; floor $635 and extra concrete, $10.80 per yard. Welch Brothers, $29,691; brick, $10.96; floor, $260, concrete $9.0. Peterson and Wilson, $31,874; brick, $1030; floor, $780, concrete $12.

YARDS SHOULD BE AS CLEAN AS ANY HOUSE

By Dr. Charles R. Blake

It is a fine thing for a city, as it is for a home, to be clean. It is a fine thing too, for a city to begin the summer season with a thorough cleaning up and removal of filth and rubbish that have accumulated during the winter months. Spring is the natural cleaning up time and always marks the beginning of better things. But it too often happens that it marks the end of a short season of good work that should be kept up all the time, if lasting and permanent results are to be obtained.

There is one good feature about all this clean-up business, however, and it is this: It indicates not only the clean-up spirit but the keep-clean spirit. It impels people to say "Now that we have cleaned up and have everything spic and span and in apple pie order, let's keep it that way all the time." And this latter spirit is the spirit that counts. No one needs to be told that while filth and dirt accumulate cleanliness does not. Every housewife knows that in her home it is a constant battle with dirt. So let us, as citizens, have a constant season of activity in keeping our city clean. Then we shall have a city so clean, tidy and attractive that with all pardonable pride, we rightfully call Richmond, the city clean and beautiful.

A clean city makes for the comfort and health of its people. Get the habit. What habit? Why, the clean-up habit, of course. There should be enough back yard gardens in this city to supply many of our tables with fresh, home grown vegetables. Have you started yours yet? Why not try it?

Are you proud of that back yard now? Looks a good deal better than it did before you cleaned up. But don't forget to keep it that way all these summer months and if you have room, plant some flowers and vegetables in it and see how quickly you will begin to get returns for the labor and time invested.

A half hour's work in your garden or yard each morning will do more towards restoring your working efficiency than a gross of blood purifiers, a bushel of pills or a barrel of sassafras tea.

If you know of any unsanitary condition, or have any complaint to make, call the Health Office, 302, and we will give it our immediate attention. "That's Our Business."

Chas. R. Blake, M. D., Health Commissioner.

FOLLOW CROWD TO MAJESTIC THEATRE

"Follow the crowd to the Majestic" is the slogan nowadays. The popular playhouse is packed nightly with hundreds who are anxious to see the famous Parker Players and the rest of the well balanced bill. From the leading man down to the most important character the parts are well chosen and well played. Pathos, humor, side-splitting comedy and character acting all follow in quick succession, and leave an impression on those in the audience that is permanent. All the way through, from the time that the curtain raises until the orchestra plays the postlude, there is something doing, real singing, real novelties and real acting. That the public of Richmond appreciates the efforts of the Majestic to get the best talent available is shown by the monster crowds that pack the playhouse every night.
